

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF LAKE PLEASANT AND SPECULATOR

AUGUST 19, 2014

The meeting began with the pledge to the flag. The minutes of the last meeting were read over by the group. Sally made the motion to approve, Barbara seconded. The treasurer reported the ending balance of $4640.36.

OLD BUSINESS:

- A. The chair caning program was enjoyed by 16 people.
- B. Don Leadley drew a large crowd with his Adirondack Wild Life program . A DVD is available
- C. Sally reported close to 1000 visitors viewed the re-enactment. The actors were pleased that so many visited their camp and asked questions, Next re-enactment will be the War of 1812 in 2016.
- D. The Gilman Town historian led a group of 14 people on an interesting tour.
- E. Dave McComb led the popular Rhinelander tour.

NEW BUSINESS:

- A. The constitution committee has not met. When changes are made, a draft will be sent out and voted on after review.
- B. Sally reported that people at the Farmer's Market are looking for t-shirts and calenders. The price of games will be $15. Post cards will be a 'new item' to sell next year.
- C. Remember to write memories of people, places and events of the past for the book.
- D. Aaron thanked all who have helped keep the museum open this summer.
- E. People are needed for two hour shifts at the Garage Sale September 13th and 14th.
- F. Sandy has 8 vendors for the Apple Fest, September 27th. We have the apple press. We will need apples, cider, pumpkins to paint. The Chamber and public radio will advertise. Sally made the motion that a banner be made for the event, Anne seconded. Jordan will demonstrate black smithing.