

g. Reports were made on the Apple Festival of Sept. 26th, 2015. Sandy LaVarnway reported that she did not have as many vendors signed up as last year. Those we do have include the blacksmith and food (hamburgers and hot dogs) by the Pleasant Riders. Shorty Hoffman is working on an antique car display and Charlie Johns will be selling apples and cider from their antique truck. Music by Azelia and the Good Ole Boys needs to be finalized. The buggy needs repairs before being moved. Those in outfits will be available for photos for a donation to the Historical Society. Bev Hoffman brought up the fact that there is no contact information on the flyers.

Pumpkins have been ordered.

h. Christy O'Connor from SPARC spoke about that organization's desire to assist groups do events to get people into the area. Suggested were races (bike, canoe), basket raffle, suplane rides and scavenger hunts. They want to do a fall festival and to want to help. Aaron stated that we already are open to local businesses and that SPARC should buy space to have things for Kids and teens. SPARC should talk with Anne W. and help with publicity
