

- Historical Book List (Anne, Beverly)
  - Based on previous suggestion, a list of books which reference the history of the area was compiled and received from Bill Zullo. Anne will choose about ten books from the list which target this area and make this resource available to those interested. It was suggested that this list be provided to the library for inclusion in their collection.
- Historical Markers (Aaron)
  - Many suggestions were received for five new historical markers. The following were suggested: Airdville, Page Street, Lake Pleasant Methodist Church, Osborne Point, Sageville, 1812 Military Road, Perkins Clearing, Gilman Town, Camp Kunjamuk, Pecks Road (aka Guideboard Hill), Camp Agaming, Camp Setag, Charlie Brown Lane, camp Maryland, Christine Falls, Burhnam's mill (aka Rhinelander mill), Captain Gill, Brooks Farm. Letson's Farm, Sacandaga, Buyce's blacksmith shop
  - Anne will research to see which suggestions meet the prior to 1915 criteria
- Book for 2015; Memories and History (Aaron)
  - Work in progress; no report
- Future Events
  - Apple Fest (Sept. 27) (Anne, Sandy)
    - Anne needs helpers that day; a sign up sheet was available.
    - Aaron will put something together for people to donate to the cabinet fund (goal is to raise $1,000) for the fireproof cabinet
  - Cemetery Tour (Oct. 25) (Anne, Beverly)
    - No report
  - Geocaching and Ham Radio Event (Feb. 21, 2015) (Aaron)
    - The event will be put on the website next month. Volunteers are needed to make soup, serve lunch. Event will be at Lake Pleasant School
    - The Ham Radio Group is discussing what they will do
  - Bus tour for 2015 (Anne)
    - On hold; if successful, we may consider having a bus tour to the Military Road during the 2016 re-enactment.
  - Hamilton County History Fair (Aug.15, 2015) (Aaron)
    - Aaron has sent out letters to various historical societies to have a presentation ;event will be at the pavilion; he is