

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES OF JANUARY 15, 2013 MEETING

Members present: Aaron Weaver, Letty Rudes, Bev Hoffman, Barbara Schoonmaker, Karon McComb, Bill Weaver, Peggy LaFontaine, Anne Weaver, Sandy LaVarnway, Joan Tracy.

The meeting began with the pledge to the flag. The minutes of the last meeting were approved. The treasurer's report was read. (see next page)

OLD BUSSINESS:

Aaron showed us the toys he purchased for sale at the museum, farmer's market and other events. There were fans, with instructions for use, soldiers, indians and farm animals.

NEW BUSINESS

- A. Contact still needs to be made concerning the VanBuiten and Letson Farm tour. These won't take place until spring or summer.
- B. After discussion it was decided to go ahead with the Cemetery Tour on October 26, 2013 at Fish Mountian.
- C. The Apple Fest will be Sept. 28, 2013 at the pavilion from 10 to 4. There will be face painting and pumpkin carving with other fun activities. L.P. Riders will serve lunch and there will be a BBQ at 4pm.
- D. The historic Buildings Tour has been sold out. Peggy suggested that she host a wine and cheese gathering at her home to entice new members. Perhaps Aaron could attend in costume to give talk on Historical Society.
- E. Aaron has spoken to some re-enactors about Comingrtheekend Weekend of Aug. 10, 2014. They all seem to enjoy coming.
- F. After discussion it was decided to limit our visits to area museums to two a year in May and August. This year we will visit Piseco and Indian Lake.
- G. Sandy will send thank you notes to the town and an private individual for donations.
- H. It was decided that the Historical Society will not become involved with the park and boxing project.
- I. The calendar for 2014 needs to be ready for sale by Memorial Day. The theme will be local landmarks. At the Feb meeting each member will get four businesses to contact.
